Item No. 5.

To VICTOR.

1. Concerning the four [a] [1% of] the BANK, ROBERT advises that in his opinion a definitive plan in relation to GERMANY has not yet been adapted. All four memoranda are drafts. The precise date he does not remember but in his opinion this was either a couple of weeks before QUEBEC or a week or two after. At that time it was proposed to all departments having relation to international affairs to rush preparation of a draft bearing on GERMANY.

2. Your telegram No. 5482. ALBERT has handed three thousand dollars to ROBERT, who ~~[3 groups unrecovered]~~ was very satisfied as a result.
